EcoNāma | Page No.
Date / /

1.
→ ans :- (c) Adjective

Explanation : An adjective describes a noun.

2
→ Ans :- (a) correlative conjunction

Explanation :- correlative conjunctions are pairs of words used together

3.
→ (b) Has been working

since "2021" indicates an action that started in the past and continues in the present.

4. (d) Finished

"yesterday" indicates an action in the past.

5. (b) than the correct grammatical structure is "No sooner...than"

6. (d) Had worked

This is a third conditional sentance.

7. (a) one of ~~the~~ my friends lives in Pune

After "one of", we use a plural noun (friends)

8. (a) Part a

"senior" takes the preposition "to", not "than".

9. (a) I Know the answer

"Know" is a stative verb.

10. ~~It is high~~ (d) started

After "It is high time", we use the Simple past tense to express that something should happen now.

11. (c) transient

Ephemeral means lasting for a very short time

12 (b) Extravagant

frugal means careful about spending money.

13. (d) practical pragmatic means dealing with situations in a practical and realistic way

14. (a) Polyglot

A Polyglot is a person who can speak several languages.

15. (b) Entomology

Entomology is the scientific study of insects.

16. (c) Panacea

Panacea means a solution or remedy or remedy that can supposedly solve every problem.

12. (b) to work late into the night.

It means studying or working until late at night.

18. (a) A cause of dispute

it refers to something that causes disagreement or arguments between people.

19. (c) called off

called off means cancelled.

20. (d) At first sight

prima facie is Latin phrase meaning something appears true based on the initial evidence

21. (c) is the main subject is "Professor"

22. ~~Neither the mana~~ (d) were with "neither... nor", the verb generally agrees with the nearest subject.

23. (a) has

"the number of" takes singular verbs.

24. (b) is mathematics is treated as singular subject when referring to the academic subjects.

25 (b) walking to class, I got caught in the rain

the person walking to class is "I".

26 (a) swimming

the sentence uses parallel structure.

27. (d) An, a

•Honest starts with a vowel sound because the "h" is silent so we use "an".

•European starts with a "y" sound, so we use "a"

28. (c) At the correct expression is "good at"

29. (a) Among

"Among" is used when something is divided or shared by more than two people.

30. (b) to

We use "agree to" when accepting a proposal, suggestion or plan.